

Share your story

What our East Coast Riders are Saying

We asked our Tour de Pink East Coast riders on Facebook what they are most excited about, see what they said below. What do you see as the common excitement?

Christine Malloy Rojas: The community and love of the event

Cathleen J Anderson: Scenic rides.

Michelle Couto Correnti: The people!

Brian Cluxton: Seeing everyone.

Scott Patton: Quality time with Jim Patton and 100+ friends.

Marcie Christine: Meeting new friends!

Lisa Mary: It will be my first ride and I'll be a ride Marshal!

Sarah Hargrove: An excuse to spend 3 days riding! And I don't have to cook my own food, oh, and fabulous community.

Nicole Haidaczuk: Meeting new people and riding along with great friends!

Erin Gallagher: The people! A big part of which may be Geoffrey and The Party SAG!

Terri Shade: Seeing friends and survivor stories.

Linda Larkin Mielcarek: Seeing everyone.

Gary Thornton: Each and every one of the people. And the hugs and the love and the people and the support and the people.

Tracy Hall: Seeing my TDP family and riding strong!

K Ray Banks: Group rides are great!

As you can see from above, Tour de Pink is a community of people cycling for one goal, serving young women affected by breast cancer. Join us today!

200 miles took me to my pink therapy weekend. I feel unstoppable after experiencing an event of this nature. The love you experience from these three days is what keeps me going all year long.

- Christel B. Survivor

Donate to Tour de Pink

Make Your Own Memories

 /TdPSouth

 /TdPEastCoast

 /TdPWestCoast

 ysctdp

